Alma Mater

Hail to Franklin, how we love thee,
Alma Mater, hail,
Gold and blue wave bright above thee,
through the calm and gale.
Sons and daughters sing thy praises,
and thy name adore,

While the heart its jubal raises "Franklin evermore!"

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

The Omicron Delta Kappa Society, Inc., is the National Leadership Honor Society for college students that recognizes and encourages superior scholarship, leadership, and exemplary character. Membership in ODK is a mark of highest distinction and honor.

The Society recognizes achievement in scholarship; athletics; campus or community service, social and religious activities, and campus government; journalism, speech and the mass media; and the creative and performing arts. Emphasis is placed on the development of the whole person, both as a member of the college community and as a prospective contributor to a better society.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded December 3, 1914 at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia by 15 students and faculty leaders. The founders formulated the idea that leadership of exceptional quality and versatility in college should be recognized, that representatives in all phases of college life should cooperate in worthwhile endeavors, and that outstanding students, faculty, and administrators should meet on a basis of mutual interest, understanding, and helpfulness. ODK was the first college honor society of a national scope to give recognition and honor for meritorious leadership and service in extracurricular activities and to encourage development of general campus citizenship. The ODK "mark of distinction" is well recognized by leaders in both the academic and business worlds.

Omicron Delta Kappa is continually growing in membership and expanding to establish circles. The Franklin College Gold Quill Circle was chartered on May 4, 2000.
