

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Do You Lead?

Whether it is through outstanding academic performance, exceptional athletic ability, a special talent in the arts, or a commitment to serving your campus and community—you are a leader.

It only makes sense that you are being considered for membership in one of the most prestigious honor societies.

Omicron Delta Kappa recognizes the most outstanding students across the country for their leadership skills and accomplishments.

We guide collegiate members on the journey from serving as a campus leader today to a community leader tomorrow.
