INTRODUCTIONS AND WELCOME

(Introductory comments and a general welcome may be given by the President/Presiding Officer or another individual as individuals gather for the start of the ceremony.)

President/Presiding Officer:

As the (President of the _____ Name of Institution _____ Circle/ _____ Presiding Officer's Title) of Omicron Delta Kappa, I welcome you to this initiation/chartering ceremony held on your behalf. Those of us who are members of OΔK value its high ideals and purposes as we strive to provide leadership in worthy undertakings and to be of service to others. We believe in the tenets of this Society and those principles for which it stands. We are pleased and honored to share them with you today as we welcome you into the newly chartered (if applicable) (_____ Name of Institution) Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Let us welcome (_____ Name of Individual) who will come forward to lead our invocation/opening moment of reflection.

(Circles should use the Invocation or Opening Moment of Reflection but not both.)

Invocation: O God, we are grateful for the privilege of leadership in worthy undertakings and for the ideals of Omicron Delta Kappa. Give to all who are assembled to confer the honors of initiation upon these duly elected members a renewed vision of the meaning of Omicron Delta Kappa. Grant that the desires for creative thinking, for high purposes and ideals, for moral strength and integrity may ever remain close to our hearts. Grant also that we may strive without ceasing to incorporate them into our lives as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and civic leaders. Instill in us, O God, the principles of faith and courage, of honest work, and of sacrifice for the tasks that lie before us. Amen.

HISTORY AND SYMBOLS

President/Presiding Officer: You have undertaken upon yourselves the obligation of membership in the Omicron Delta Kappa Society. This means that you will ever seek to make it a real factor for good in academic and community life, not only in your own college or university, but in American educational institutions at large; as well as in the communities in which you will lead. As a member, you commit that you will make every effort to practice its high ideals, both in private and public life, so that the world may see in you a concrete, living symbol of the great principles of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded December 3, 1914, at Washington and Lee University, in Lexington, Virginia. Our 15 founders stated that leadership of exceptional quality and versatility in college should be recognized; that representatives of all phases of college life should cooperate in worthwhile endeavor; and that outstanding students and faculty members should meet on a basis of common interest, understanding, and helpfulness.

INITIATION Ceremony

The motives which guided the founders sprang from the desire to bring together one body for the general good of the institution, leaders from all parts of the college or university community. The success of the OΔK Idea, an essential part of which is its joint student-faculty character and a determination to maintain a consistent and high standard of leadership recognition, led to the establishment of chapters, which we call circles, at other colleges and universities.

The Society in which you are about to become a member has a three-pronged mission:

- Identify, honor, and develop leaders in collegiate and community life;
- Encourage collaboration among students, faculty, staff, and alumni to advance leadership; and
- Promote, publicize, and enhance our ideals:

(As each of the ideals are identified slowly and emphatically by the President/Presiding Officer, an assistant lights one candle at a time until all five candles are lit.)

- Scholarship - to strive for excellence in academics and to pursue lifelong learning
- Service - to answer the call for action from one's community or country
- Integrity - to align one's values and beliefs with behaviors and speech
- Character - to distinguish oneself for the good of humanity
- Fellowship - to embrace those in the Society as equals seeking inclusive bonds across diverse communities and generations

It has ever been our desire and custom to try to symbolize in material form our dreams, ambitions, ideals, and sentiments. In accordance with this innate desire and feeling, Omicron Delta Kappa also has tried to express in material form, the “Key,” its noble ideals, lofty aspirations, and altruistic aims. The key, which is struck in the form of a circle, symbolizes union forever and the equality which characterizes membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

The Greek motto for which the letters OΔK stands is:
(Ho Daph-no’-ko-mos Kük’-los) which translates as “The Laurel Crowned Circle.”

Our emblem, the Laurel Crowned Circle, stands for success achieved in worthy undertakings. The shape of the Key (the President/Presiding Officer points to a large replica of the Key) represents the circle, which symbolizes the all-around and inclusive nature of our organization. The five stars on the upper bar represent the five major phases of college life, for which our Society stands:

- Scholarship
- Athletics
- Campus or Community Service, Social, Religious Activities, and Campus Government
- Journalism, Speech, and the Mass Media
- Creative and Performing Arts

The number 1914 on the lower bar indicates the year in which our Society was founded.

(At this point, the President/Presiding Officer may add a brief statement about the history or traditions of the local circle such as charter date, major circle programs, and distinguished members.)

INITIATION Ceremony

INITIATION CEREMONY

President/Presiding Officer: We who are members of Omicron Delta Kappa have observed your habits, attitudes, and capacities, and are pleased with your success, your steady growth as leaders in worthwhile endeavors, and your appreciation of the ideals and purposes of the Society. We have asked you here today to make you members of our Society and to present to each of you the Laurel Crowned Circle, the symbol of achievement. Before we accept you into The Omicron Delta Kappa Society, please listen thoughtfully to these words.

(The three voices may speak from appropriate places at the initiation table or from the rear of the room or balcony.)

First Voice: You should know that the Laurel Crowned Circle is not only a recognition of past exemplary conduct, but that it must also be to you a constant inspiration to finer and nobler living, so long as you shall live.

Second Voice: You should know that the Laurel Crowned Circle is not only a recognition of past loyalty to all good works, but that it must also be to you a constant inspiration to unselfish service to the Society, to (name of college or university) and to your vocation, and a life-long reminder that if greatness is to be achieved, one must serve.

Third Voice: You should know that the Laurel Crowned Circle is not only a recognition of past achievement, but that it must also be to you a constant inspiration to spend the rest of your days climbing higher and yet higher, ever remembering that death comes apace, and that the longest span of human life is all too short for the completion of the tasks that lie ready to our hands.

President/Presiding Officer: Will the candidates for membership please stand, if you are able? You have heard in these words the great unchanging principles upon which our Society is founded. If you are willing to accept the lofty ideals, the sense of devotion, and the spirit of aspiration represented in Omicron Delta Kappa, please respond, "I will."

Candidates: I will.

President/Presiding Officer: Then please repeat after me.

“In the presence of the Circle here assembled,
I solemnly promise/to uphold the Ideals and Traditions,
the Constitution and Bylaws,
of the Omicron Delta Kappa Society/and to support in loyal service/its local and national officers, to participate in its meetings, ceremonies and initiatives/
and to diligently foster/life-long leadership.”

You may be seated.

President/Presiding Officer: You have committed yourself to the principles of the Omicron Delta Kappa Society and to our timeless values of scholarship, service, integrity, character, and fellowship. From this day forward and throughout each stage of your life, you will strive to serve as a living example of excellence in leadership.

You have been chosen to wear this emblem of distinction because of your loyalty and devotion to the (_____ Name of Institution) and to the things that are fine and true in life.
